

Gas card contribution

VIERA VOICE Mary Brotherton

On August 15, 2008 in Viera, Florida, Ricky Byrd, project manager for Elkins Constructors hands Shelly Lockhart, executive director for Watersong an envelope with more than 200 gas cards for her to give to Meals on Wheels drivers.

Elkins appreciates subcontractors

BY MARY BROTHERTON

On Friday, August 15, Elkins Constructors hosted lunch for subcontractors, in appreciation for their hard work on the Watersong Senior Living community in Viera.

Superintendent Steve Kulas said, "Everybody stepped up and did a fantastic job. We are ahead of schedule. Keep up the good work."

Before lunch, a small crew used a big crane to place the final cupola in a "topping out" ceremony to thunderous applause and loud cheers.

Project Manager Ricky Byrd said, "Thank you, subcontractors. You've done a great job and this will look good on everyone's resume. We got the right subs to do it right and I think you should all go home tonight feeling good about yourselves."

Prior to the event, Byrd had asked everyone to bring in a gas

VIERA VOICE Mary Brotherton

More than 200 subcontractors, invited guests and Elkins Constructors' staff and management cheer as they watch the final cupola being placed on the last apartment building during a special Topping Out ceremony at Watersong in Viera, FL. on Friday, Aug. 15, 2008.

gift card. He presented over 200 cards to Watersong Executive Director Shelley Lockhart, who will give them to Community Services Council CEO Cindy Flachmeier in September for the Meals on Wheels Drivers.

For more information about how you can contribute a gas card to Meals on Wheels, call 321-253-6324. 